Port Officers Conference Scheduled at Carbondale

Southern Illinois University's first management conference for Waterways Terminal and Port Executives, set for the three days of Oct. 31 through Nov. 2 at the Carbondale campus, will bring together management representatives of the industry from throughout the nation, according to A. R. MacMillan, director of the University's Transportation Institute.

Joining the Institute in sponsoring the conference are SIU's School of Business and Division of Technical and Adult Education. A guest faculty composed of top authorities in areas of planning, developing, financing, and managing terminals and ports on the nation's inland waterways, has been obtained to lead discussions during the conference, MacMillan says.

The Institute has been serving the waterways industry in recent years with such programs as short courses for towboat masters, chief engineers and marine chemists, and seminars in admiralty law, marine financing, and watercarriers management. The management conference is being offered because of the growing importance of the nation's inland water commerce and the increasing opportunities and interest in developing this industry.

Headlining the Monday and Tuesday (Oct. 31 and Nov. 1) dinner sessions respectively will be Lambert S. O'Malley, assistant administrator for public works in the Economic Development Administration, Washington, D.C.; and Alex S. Chamberlain, president of the Louisville (Ky.) Rebuilding Co. and chairman of the Kentucky Port and River Development Commission which is charged with promoting river-related industrial, agricultural, commercial and recreational development for the state.

UF's Mental Health Clinic Aids Persons with Problems

Problems are part of everyday life. Most can be handled successfully and a solution found by the individual. But, what if the roots of the problem are so deep and complex they eventually lead to a serious emotional disturbance or mental illness?

Through the Quad-Cities Mental Health Center, an agency of the Tri-Cities Area United Fund, help is available to local residents who are seriously distressed, or for those whose worlds appear to be crumbling under pressures and mounting emotional frustrations. Preventive psychiatric treatment is strongly emphasized by the local mental health clinic, which offers early diagnosis and assistance to forestall more serious illnesses.

Youngsters and Adults
Approximately half of those persons helped through the Quad-Cities Center are for youngsters, referred to the UF agency by physicians, special education department personnel from area school districts, teachers, principals and social workers. Parents of all children who are referred to the center are required to make the initial appointment, thereby signifying the service and subsequent treatment is desired.

Currently, out of 180 open cases being processed through diagnostic stages or regular treatment phases at the local clinic, 60 involve children, Jerry Staten, ex-

CRACK-UP. Treatment for emotional disturbances, arising from tensions and problems unable to be handled by the individual man, woman or child, is available at the Quad-Cities Mental Health Center, 1243a Niedringhaus avenue, an Agency of the Tri-Cities United Fund. Preventive treatment before serious mental illness results is stressed by the qualified staff members.

ective director and psychiatric social worker, reports.

At the present time, the Quad-Cities Center has working agreements with the Highland and Collinsville school systems, the Illinois Public Aid office, Edwardsville, and Granite City and Madison school districts, among other agencies.

Methods of Financing

The clinic is financed by fees from patients, discussed with each applicant and graduated according to family financial status, funds from the Illinois Department of Mental Health, private contributions and United Fund allocations.

In asking as little as a 50-cent fee for treatment, Staten explained that it is believed the patient is less likely to treat the service as charity and try harder to accept the guidance and treatment offered and make an effort himself towards total recovery.

The local center houses a play therapy room, where youngsters become more expressive while playing with various games and toys. In many instances, the executive said, observations in the playroom provide the key to a child's hostile or withdrawn behavior.

Early Start Urged
In the past, many of the emotional needs in the younger child have not been recognized until the child has reached teenage level, Staten explained, adding that at this stage, more extensive treatment is required. With the cooperation of persons familiar with behavior of youngsters, it is now possible to help the disturbed child at a much earlier age with greater success, the director pointed out.

During the clinic's fiscal year ending June 30, 348 clients from the Quad-Cities received treatment at the Quad-Cities Center, located at 1243a Niedringhaus avenue. The figure represented a total of 2705 treatment hours, plus consulting services to schools and other agencies.

The Quad-Cities Mental Health Center which will receive an $11,000 allocation from the local United Fund, is staffed by Dr. Robert Hicks of Franciscan, Mo., as medical director and part-time psychiatrist; Jerry Staten, full-time executive director and psychiatric social worker; Dewey Mathews, a full-time clinical psychologist; Charles Anderson, a part-time psychiatric social worker; Mrs. Harriet Mercer, a full-time secretary-receptionist; and Mrs. Mildred Grabowski, an office worker and typist.

In addition a second-year student from the School of Social Work at St. Louis University spends several hours assisting at the center each week under the supervision of the director.

Board of Directors
The center is governed by a board of directors, headed by Nicholas R. Brink as president.

Other directors include Edwin Reiske, Harold Thomas, Miss Eva Meyer, Miss Myra Blades, Mrs. Gladys Chapman, Edward R. Dubish, Orville Ganz, Dr. Felicia D. Koch, Henry D. Karandjoff, Maurice Chapman, Louis Pashea, Gilbert Stanford, Dr. E. H. Theis, Rev. Missile Maintenance Award to Local Airman

Airman first-class Peter Galinski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Galinski, 2580 Waterman avenue, has won the 308th Strategic Missile Wing "Maintenance Man of the Month" award at the Little Rock, Ark., Air Force Base, his family has been notified.

Newly promoted from airman second-class, the electrician has assisted in missile propellant servicing at 12 complexes, and has been sent to Vandenberg AFB, Calif., for Titan II launches in a configuration requiring the wearing of protective clothing.

On several occasions, he has donned the rocket fuel handler's clothing outfit to make electrical malfunction repairs that otherwise would have required the missile to be taken out of service for two days.

The award cited outstanding ability to cooperate with associates, acceptance of responsibilities far beyond those expected, mature evaluation and completion of each task professionally in a minimum of time.

His brother, Marine Pfc. John L. Galinski, is being transferred to Vietnam from Camp Pendleton, Calif.

County May Buy Old PO Bldg. at Edwardsville

The courthouse committee of the Madison county board of supervisors voted approval of a proposal to purchase the old Edwardsville post office for $74,000. This property is owned by Casens & Sons of Edwardsville, who originally had set a $108,000 price tag on the property.

The proposal also is being considered by the board's Finance committee. The building would be converted for county administrative offices if it is purchased. Harold Landolt, board chairman, said the proposal has yet to be studied, listing renovation costs as a factor.

Wind, Rain, Other Elements Foil Warriors' Attempt for 1st Win

"The first half it seemed like the boys didn't come to play, but the second half they really hit," Warrior coach Jim Morrison commented as the rain, wind, and the Wood River Oilers all combined to end Granite City Warriors 20-7 Friday night.

Midway through the second quarter, Wood River registered the first score of the game. Oiler quarterback Mike Hudock led his team 67 yards for the initial touchdown with Hudock smashing two yards up the middle for the six pointer. The conversion by left-tackle Phil Grigg split the uprights as Wood River led 7-0.

With Granite City in possession on its own 43 in the 2nd period, Conway faked back and then threw the ball in the general direction of Rich Papp. From out of nowhere came Mike Hudock, Wood River linebacker, who grabbed the ball and to the delight of the Wood River fans scampered 57 yards for the touchdown. The conversion attempt was off to the right, and as the first half ended Wood River led 13-0.

After Granite City scored its lone touchdown, the Oilers added six more points in the third quarter of play as they marched 31 yards for the score. Mike Hudock, who by the way scored the Oilers first two touchdowns, again hit paydirt. The conversion by Grigg was good.

Quarterback Dave Snelson calling the signals, moved the Warriors to the Wood River three, and with third and goal, Snelson gave to Fullback Dan Partney, who cracked through the Wood River line for the TD.

Partney Runs Extra Point

Partney carried the ball across for the one point run. At this point, Wood River held a slim one touchdown lead 13-7.

"The Warriors threatened early in the opening minutes of play with Quarterback Steve Conway at the reins.

With the ball on the Oiler 44, Conway sneaked through the middle of the massive Wood River line for a gain to the 39. Halfback White added three more yards to the Wood River 36. Papp then lost to the 37 which put the Warriors in a field goal situation.

Winds up to 25 miles an hour were behind the Warrior field goal expert Dan Partney, and it appeared that Granite City would jump into an early lead. However, the kick fell short and the Oilers took over their 20.

Workhorse of Drive

Late in the first period, Granite City drove from the Wood River 44-yard line to the seven with Fullback Partney, the workhorse of the drive. Partney raced off tackle 31 yards before he was caught from behind at the Oiler 13.

Faced with a possible scoring situation Conway sneaked to the seven. However, the Warriors lost momentum and the ball to the Oilers.

In the fourth period when an on again and off again rain marred the proceedings, the Warriors were forced to utilize their passing game in a desperate effort to catch up. Conway executed a number of completed passes but in vain. As the sun rounded the Wood River Oilers gained a hard fought rain soaked victory over Granite 20-7.

Local Photographer Has Best Seat in the House

Harry Fechte is a spectator who never has to worry about basketball continuously.

"I pause more often in football to conserve film, and there's a lot of action you wouldn't want to miss—such as huddles or time outs. In basketball," he pointed out, "it's a lot faster and I shoot nearly everything."

Fechte, who shoots wrestling also uses different speeds for various sports. "On football I usually shoot 16 frames per second," he said, "so that it can be slowed down properly when coaches want to go over a certain play. And for basketball, I shoot 24 frames a second."

Fechte remains.

$1700 in Gear

Harry's equipment is more sophisticated now, too. "I've got $1700 worth of gear up there, he said, explaining that he has to hoist the heavy camera, with its $500 "Zoom" lens, up to the tower on a half-inch lens, and by the way, the tower throughout the game, ever zealously guarding his ramparts during the halftime ceremonies.

The high-magnification zoom lens has increased Fechte's art tremendously. The lens will go from 17 to 85 mm. In photography, Fechte's lingo this means that after photographing a long touchdown run at a distance, Fechte can close in to see the satisfied expression on the happy player's face.

Not only has Fechte taken advantage of the newest electrically-driven camera, he has come a long way from short magazines of film.

"I used to have to stop four or five times during a game to put in a new reel. Now I only stop once, along in the fourth quarter, after shooting 40 feet. I miss three plays when I put in the 100-foot roll to finish with," he said.

Fechte explained that football and basketball, which he also "shoots" for area coaches, differ

Driveway is Littered

Ronald Lybarger, 175 Briarcliff, reported Sunday morning that vandals had smashed soda bottles in the driveway at his home and also had hurled an egg against the living room window.

Li, Donald Wisor, SA officer, is extending an invitation to all area churches to play the team.

The team, whose members are William Krumpholtz, Mike Jones, Bob Reeves, Elmer Hull, Richard Hull, Larry Weldon, Sonny Overton, Keith Rudder, Richard Shubert, captain, and Li, Donald Wisor, will also play other Salvation Army teams in the two-state metropolitan area.

Arctic Underwear

"I can remember our game with Madison at Roxana," Fechte recalled, "that was played in a continuous misty rain. I used a plastic cover and raincoat. Only a golfer's umbrella would be better."

And cold weather?

"I wear arctic underclothing and socks, a hat with earflaps, a heavy coat and gloves," said Fechte, who has covered some games in below-freezing weather. "It gets pretty cold up in that tower," he confessed.

Bethalto's Air Game Too Much for Trojans; Lose 26-6 Despite Ground Gains

A series of screen passes and fumbles at vital moments were factors credited by Trojan coach Glen Pickering to cause Madison to lose a conference game to Bethalto 26-6 Thursday evening at Bethalto.

Bethalto scored the first TD of the game. After a sustained drive to the Madison goal, Ken Hammon, junior back, plunged for one yard and a TD.

In the second quarter the Trojan offense drove from midfield to Bethalto's 2 yard line where Ron Burr drove between guard and tackle for Madison's one TD of the game. Burr also attempted the PAT, but was stopped.

With the Trojans one point behind, Bethalto's quarterback, Ricci Stotler, in a series of pass plays, put the ball on the one-yard line, where Hammon again scored on a plunge over center; Stotler's PAT was blocked.

Halted by Gun

In the last minutes before the half, Madison offense took the ball into scoring position, and on second sustained drive from the 15-yard line when the half time gun sounded.

"Our offense, with Burr and Jones carrying, did a great job on the ground—we were ready to score, but the half time gun cut us out," Pickering said.

The Trojans held Bethalto to a scoreless third quarter, and again began ground drives to scoring position.

Half Ground Drive

Once Madison was on Bethalto's 12-yard line when they fumbled with Bethalto recovering. The Trojan defense stopped Bethalto's offensive drive at midfield and another successful ground drive put the Trojans in scoring position on the Eagles' 12-yard line.

Another fumble, recovered by Bethalto, at the end of the third quarter, allowed Stotler, in a series of pass plays, to set up for a third Bethalto TD, in the fourth quarter.

On a 40-yard screen pass from Stotler to Prange, the Eagles scored. Stotler's PAT kick was blocked.

Again Madison drove on the ground, but gave up the ball to Bethalto. Stotler began passing again, and the same combination, Stotler to Prange, scored a fourth TD for the Eagles on a 45-yard screen pass play.

Penalty Hurts

In the final minutes of the game, the Trojans drove from their own 25-yard line to the Eagles' three-yard line, but an oldies penalty put the Trojans back on the 8-yard line, and on the fourth down they were stopped by Bethalto short of the goal.

"Our boys played a good game, but we had to face one of the best high school quarterbacks I've seen in a long-time—he was a scrambler—he was all over, fading, reversing, and then passing beautiful long balls," Pickering said. He added that Stotler was probably responsible for all of Bethalto's TDs. "Two were long balls and the other two were set up by passes by Stotler," he told the Press-Record.

Bethalto's win over Madison gives them a 4-1 record, their only loss being to Cahokia by two points. Madison now is 2-1 and will play Roxana Friday at Madison next.

Prather Pounds Roxana 26-6 For 3rd Win

Holding Roxana to one TD in the second quarter, Prather junior high won a football game at Roxana Thursday 26-6.

Dan Suich began the Prather scoring with a 14-yard TD run in the second quarter.

Roxana countered and tied the game 6-6.

In the third quarter, Suich again ran off tackle for four yards and scored, and in the same quarter Stan Corey scored on a five-yard end sweep. Both extra points were run over, and were scored by Corey and Richard Lesko.

Prather scored again when Suich, on another off-tackle play, went five yards for a TD in the fourth quarter.

The Prather junior high Chiefs are now 3-1 overall and 3-0 in their conference, equal with Edwardsville, whom they will meet at 4 p.m. this Thursday at Edwardsville.

Coolidge Wins Easily After Early Deficit

North of Collinsville jumped ahead with a TD directly after the kickoff but Coolidge, with a combination of passes and ground plays, won 33-12 at home Thursday.

After going scoreless in the first quarter, Coolidge took the lead in the second quarter. Tim Leonard scored the first Braves TD on a 35-yard run over left tackle and ran the PAT. Donald Haddix ran 15 yards on a left end sweep, with Tony Kozick kicking the extra point.

On a 25-yard pass from David Evans, Tim Moore ran another 25 yards to score and put the Braves ahead 20-6 at the half.

In the third quarter, Leonard ran over left tackle for 35 yards and scored again, Kozick kicking the extra point.

North of Collinsville scored in the final quarter, but not until Brave Gary Johnson caught a 15-yard aerial from Evans in the end zone.

Coolidge, with a 3-1 overall record, will play Webster Thursday at 7 p.m. at Collinsville.

Trojan Fresh Win 32-12 Game From Mater Dei

A successful ground game and five TDs, scored by V. Akers and Harold James, allowed Trojan freshmen to beat Mater Dei 32-12 at Madison Wednesday.

Madison led 7-0. Mater Dei scored next but failed in the extra point attempt.

In the second quarter, Mater Dei stamped ahead by one TD, but Akers reversed his field and ran around left end to score on a 45-yard run.

During the second half, Madison held Mater Dei scoreless and gained a one-touchdown lead with a TD pass from Ron Britt, quarterback, to Akers, in the third quarter.

In the final period, both Akers and James scored, Akers on a 50-yard run over center, and James on a 10-yard run over tackle.

GC Harriers 29th In Invitational, Sophomores 13th

Granite City placed 29th in a field of 38 teams at the Beaumont cross-country invitational meet at O'Fallon Park in St. Louis Friday.

Running a course 1.95 miles long, Granite City finishers were Dave Lomax, 54th at 10:59; Gus Schalkman, 138th at 10:59; Rich and Hull, 127th at 11:38; Mike Welsch, 172nd at 11:45; and Bruce Jones, 192nd at 11:50.

Winner of the meet, which had over 200 runners entered, was John Baldwin of O'Fallon track with a time of 9:44.

Harrier Coach Dick Harmon said he was pleased with the Warriors' performance, considering the schools they had to compete with.

He added that freshman-sophomore harriers did well in an invitational held Saturday at Rock Springs park in Alton.

"There were a lot of holes and mud caused by the rain at Rock Springs, and it slowed the boys down," he noted.

The freshmen and sophomores placed 13th out of 18 teams.

Granite City finishers were Mark Pashea, 27th at 10:02; Dennis McGee, 80th at 10:16; Tom Neupert, 63rd at 10:31; Alex Tarpo, 93rd at 11:20; and Rick Stephens, 98th at 11:35.

Harmon said a meet scheduled for 4:30 p.m. tomorrow with East St. Louis will be held at the Belleville Citizens Park instead of Granite City because he wants Warrior harriers to get used to the course. It will be used for the Southwestern conference meet Friday.

Boosters Meeting Postponed to Nov. 7

Boosters of the Fighting Warriors have postponed tonight's regular meeting until 8 p.m. Monday, Nov. 7, due to members of the GCHS coaching staff deciding to attend an East St. Louis-Alton sophomore football game this evening.

A spokesman for the local adult club also said Booster officers are disturbed by the booing of players and coaches by some local fans during Friday night's game with Wood River.

Boy, 9, Gives Up Live Grenade to Police

A possible tragedy was averted Saturday afternoon when a live fragmentation grenade was confiscated by Granite City police from a nine-year-old boy who resides at Kirkpatrick Homes.

The olive-drab colored, pineapple-type weapon, designed with a 15-second time lapse in its pin mechanism, was turned over by police to members of the 30th Ordnance Detachment Explosive Disposal Squad, at the Granite City Army Depot.

The child told police he found the grenade in the old cemetery area near the housing project. Assistant Police Chief Floyd Jell said, a Kirkpatrick Homes resident had notified the department at 3:25 p.m. Saturday, that a group of children were playing outdoors with what appeared to be a grenade.

SECOND BIRTHDAY OF BRETT WILLIAMS

The second birthday of Brett Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Williams, Rural Route Four, Edwardsville, was observed Wednesday evening. The home was decorated with various colored balloons suspended from a light over the buffet table.

A birthday tablecloth and napkins were used. The checkbook was topped with a circus theme. The group sang the birthday song.

Gifts were opened by Brett with the assistance of his sister, Kimberly Ann. Those seated were Mrs. Bernard Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Williams, grand parents of the honored guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Graknoff and Brian Boston.

MINERVA CLUB REPORT ON INTENSIVE CARE UNIT
Mrs. Georgia Harlow was hostess to the Minerva Reading club in her home, 2109 Johnson road, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Shirley Watkins, president, called the meeting to order, with the members repeating the Lord's prayer in union. Mrs. Georgina Waggoner, secretary, called the roll and each member responded with "Something New in Medicine," as the program for the month was on "Health."

Many topics were discussed or read on health. Mrs. Marieta Daniels, director of nursing services at St. Elizabeth Hospital, was guest speaker. She spoke on "Intensive Care at St. Elizabeth Hospital."

The intensive care room and equipment are being prepared and four registered nurses from the hospital are attending a course at the Belleville Junior College to be on duty when the room is ready, she said. Any patient who has need of constant care is to be cared for in this unit.

It will be a memorial to the late Dr. Wiesman, the club was told. Donations are being accepted.

Other nurses from the hospital will take the course upon completion of the first four, who are among 25 currently attending.

Mrs. Harlow, assisted by the co-hostess, Mrs. Watkins, and a guest, Mrs. Martha Bischoff, served dessert and coffee to Mrs. Gladys Gitchoff, Mrs. Helen Daley, Mrs. Helen Purkale, Miss Mary McBrien, Mrs. Shirley Rapoff, Mrs. Clova Taylor, Mrs. Waggoner, Mrs. Birds Weiss, Mrs. Lenna Williams and the guest.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 19 in the home of Mrs. Loretta Reiske. A hobby auction will be held, with guests being invited to attend. Each member is

PLAN HALLOWEEN PARTY AT SCHOOL

The Madison Harris School Mothers club met Wednesday evening in the cafeteria of Harris school for a monthly business meeting and program. Mrs. DeLores Gasho presided, with the group repeating the Lord's prayer in union.

Plans were discussed for a Halloween party and judging of costumes in the lower grades' parade. Mothers were asked to volunteer to assist with the boys and girls and to judge the costumes.

The mothers were reminded of American Education week. They will assist in serving refreshments to parents at the Louis Baer and Harris schools Nov. 9-10.

Mrs. Wilma Holland, Mrs. Loretta Ficker and Mrs. Donna Nasalroad were welcomed as members. Other mothers are being invited to join.

Porter Cawley, reading coordinator for all Madison schools, displayed and demonstrated the three machines he uses in his work with pupils. They are taken to the various schools by Cawley. Questions were asked by the mothers and answered by the speaker.

Mrs. LaVerne Harris, Mrs. Janet Shultz, Mrs. Mae Hendrickson, Mrs. Edith Balleu and Mrs. Mary Camm served refreshments. The next meeting will be held Nov. 9.

Women's Conference At SIU-SW Thursday

Mrs. Mary N. Hilton, deputy director of the Women's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor, will be the speaker at a conference entitled "Women: Agents of Change" to be held Oct. 20 at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern Campus in Carbondale. The conference will be sponsored by the Governor's Conference on the Status of Women.

Considered an expert on labor questions, particularly the problems of women workers, Mrs. Hilton has served as special assistant to the President's Commission on the Status of Women from its inception in 1961 until completion of its work in October 1963.

Her government experience includes work on the staff of the Wage and Hour and Public Contracts divisions, the National War Labor Board and five years' research director for the Women's Bureau.

At the morning symposium, to be held from 10:20 to noon, Mrs. Virginia Sims of the Pekin Prescription Laboratory and a member of the Governor's Commission on the Status of Women, will speak on "The Homemaker and the Community." The afternoon session will begin at 1:45 with Mrs. Paul Sims of the Troy as discussion leader for the session "In Government."

Two Fined for Forgery
Marvin Donohue, 22, of 3122 West 20th street, and James W. Garris, 21, of 1851 Chestnut street, were charged with theft of under $150 by forging and cashing a check drawn on the First Granite City National Bank for $80. Each was fined $100 and costs and ordered to make restitution.

Unemployment Tax Expected to Drop

The average unemployment compensation tax rate is expected to reach the lowest point Illinois history in 1967, Gov. Otto Kerner has announced.

The tax rate for 1967 will average 30% less than it did this year, and may mean "a saving of as much as $41,000,000 in taxes in 1967 for Illinois employers," the governor said.

The tax rate for 1967 is expected to average .4 per cent of taxable payrolls. This year the average was .8 per cent.

Not all employees will receive a tax cut, the Governor pointed out. Of the 92,000 employers who were subject to the unemployment compensation tax in 1966, about 48,000 are expected to receive reduced rates in 1967.

"The expected reduction in tax rates is a result of the steadily improved employment situation in Illinois," Governor Kerner said.

"Since 1961 Illinois has had an unemployment record well below that of the nation and below that of other industrial states."

Gain in Area Employment Noted by ISES Last Month

Employment in the Quad-City area rose to 19,690 persons among 64 reporting firms during the month of September, Malcolm Thompson, manager of the Illinois State Employment Service here, reported.

He anticipated a drop of about 90 by November, including 37 in primary metal industries and 31 in transportation equipment.

The total for the month was 1376 higher than in July and 703 more than in September 1965. Total manufacturing employment was listed at 15,204, or 2454 more than in July and 979 more than the same month last year.

Primary metal industries listed September employment at 11,718, more than a year ago. Employment by transportation equipment firms was reported at 1831, more than the July vacation month which listed 389 but less than last year when employment was at 1975.

A total of 4486 persons was employed in non-manufacturing jobs, a drop of 58 from July but 290 more than a year ago. Government employment totaled 1823 during the month, down 26 from July but up 365 from a year ago. An increase of 28 was anticipated by next month. Of the total, 1637 were listed as federal jobs and 177 as local jobs.

Grand Jury Indicts 36, Clears 3 Persons

Thirty-six criminal indictments were returned by the Madison county grand jury last week and were ordered suppressed by Circuit Judge James O. Monroe pending arraignments set for tomorrow.

Three defendants were exonerated. The jury deferred submitting reports on inspections of the county jail, nursing home and tuberculosis sanitarium until a recall expected late next month.

The jury was impounded Sept. 26 and is subject to recall to investigate other criminal cases before the term is concluded late this year.

Alley Cleanup in GC Delayed Temporarily

The alley cleanup started last week by the Granite City street department is being postponed because of a rush to complete other tasks while weather is good, Supt. Warfield said Friday.

The alley work was completed Friday in West Granite and Lincoln Place. "Now we'll concentrate on finishing sidewalks and curb repairs, work on catchbasins, getting rid of dead trees and street patching," Warfield said.

The street superintendent explained the alley cleanup, initiated last year by Mayor Parney, would be resumed in the near future.

Police Need Public Support, GC Sgt. Says

A need for respect for and support of law enforcement authorities by the public was cited by Sgt. Ronald Veizer of the Granite City police department in a talk before members of Tri-Cities Council 1098 of the Knights of Columbus Thursday night.

Veizer, who also showed a color film entitled "Every Hour, Every Day of the Year," said law enforcement officials are under fire today, here and throughout the United States.

Lack of respect is shown even down to the household level, he said, being critical of parents who use the police as a threat to their children. "If you don't behave, we'll call a cop and have you thrown in jail."

They instill fear in their children, he added, and many of these grow up and retain the same attitude.

"All laws today are made for the criminal and not for the ordinary citizen," he said.

Critical of Courts
He strongly criticized the courts for making "crime pay in this country." He was referring, in part, to orders by the courts to release known criminals on their own recognizance, without posting bail, after they have been arrested and charged with crimes.

The police officer cited national statistics showing an alarming rate of increase in crimes and added that "this touches on all of us, for we are affected in some way by this."

Police officers today are required to have a good deal of intelligence, Veizer said. They are appointed on the basis of competitive examinations, he added, and probationary patrolmen now are required to follow a course of formal training by attending police schools and academies.

Police Academy
He said that the Illinois legislature has provided for the development of a police academy at Springfield, and attendance by all new police officers will be required.

Granite City is fortunate to have a high grade department of police officers, Veizer said, and he commended the public for providing sufficient salaries and benefits to maintain the department at a high level.

The film illustrated the various duties of policemen, from directing traffic and settling family disputes to investigation of major crimes.

Most Upheld Police
Sgt. Veizer said the program is available to organizations and groups wishing to schedule it and arrangements may be made with him or Police Chief Raymond Willard.

In response, Rev. Lawrence Mattingly, council chaplain, disagreed that most people show little respect for law enforcement authorities. "They hear only the complaints of the minority," he said.

"But most uphold the police and their activities," he said. "The council went on record endorsing the police department and the work of its officers."

During the meeting, a eulogy was offered by Paul Edmonds, past grand knight, in honor of August Michel, one of the original members of the council who died last Wednesday.

The council voted to renew its

$234,000,000 U. S. Road Funds for State in '68

Illinois will receive a gross of $234,000,000 in federal funds for highway construction work for the year 1968, Public Works Director Francis S. Lorenz has announced.

The funds are to be allocated by the Secretary of Commerce and will enable Illinois to continue its highway program without interruption.

Of the total allotment, $192,000,000 will be for interstate highway construction. That total must be matched by the state on a 90-10% basis.

Expert Says SIU Should be Independent

The Southwestern Campus of Southern Illinois University must break away from its parent body at Carbondale if it is to attain the enrollment and educational standards predicted for it as far back as ten years ago, according to a New York College professor who participated in the preliminary studies for development of the new campus.

Professor Alanzo F. Myers, professor emeritus at New York University who was hired by the Southwestern Illinois Council for Higher Education in 1956 to study the need for a university in Madison and St. Louis counties, has prepared a paper entitled "What I Think of SIU-Edwardsville Now." He said the new campus has been unnecessarily impeded by the university administration and faculty members at the Carbondale campus and that enrollment has been held back by "arbitrary and artificial restraints" on development of graduate and professional school programs. Myers pointed out that his report was completed and presented to the higher education council March 7, 1957. It recommended immediate establishment of a branch of Southern Illinois University in the Madison-St. Clair county area as the best means and most expeditious way of making higher educational facilities available in the two-county area.

The paper came to public attention last week almost simultaneously with a public hearing at the Southwestern Campus on Phase II of the Master Plan for Higher Education in Illinois. At that hearing last Monday, the faculty council at SIU-SW Campus called for independence from the SIU administration at Carbondale, emphasizing that the faculty prefers the local campus have its own president and administration.

Myers' paper, oddly enough, predicted the split between the Southwestern and Carbondale campuses that came to light during last week's hearing. The professor noted that in his study ten years ago, he said there should be an enrollment of at least 6,000 in graduate and professional schools at Southwestern Campus by 1967. "There would be such an enrollment by 1967," he said, "had it not been for the arbitrary and artificial restraints on develop-

More Testimony in Air Pollution Fight Wednesday

Further testimony supporting requests for alternate control standards in preparation of air pollution control regulations for the Illinois-Missouri metropolitan area will be presented by the Industrial Waste Council Wednesday in the third of a series of public hearings held by the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

The third and final hearing will be held in the Community Center at Clayton, Mo., following an executive session of the Coordinating Council starting at 11:30 a.m. The Industrial Waste Council presented testimony at two earlier hearings, Sept. 27 and last Tuesday morning, in an effort to support its contention that recommendations of the Interstate Air Study are unfair and prohibitively restrictive as they apply to industrial pollution emissions. Spokesmen for various type industries have submitted alternate values for controlling air pollution in their respective fields, and contend their recommendations will provide elimination of as much, if not more, air pollution than suggested in the Air Study.

Expert to Testify
Donald Cairns, plant engineer of the Granite City Steel Co. blast furnace department and president of the Industrial Waste Council, said the Coordinating Council's principal witness Wednesday's hearing will be Dr. W. Faith, national air pollution expert and member of the Air Pollution Association, who has been retained by the Waste Council to testify at the Interstate Study and make recommendations.

Cairns said Dr. Faith has made a complete evaluation of section eight of the Interstate Study which recommends specific control regulations governing air sources of air pollution. Dr. Faith is to make his report on this evaluation in Wednesday's session, Cairns said.

The Industrial Waste Council has spearheaded all efforts to change recommendations of the Interstate Study on grounds that most of the regulations pertaining to industry are too restrictive to be economically feasible or are technologically impossible.

Technical Expert to Handle City Air Pollution Problems

In his first official statement since being elected chairman of Granite City's Air Pollution Control Board, Henry Bienenfeld said today that no policy changes are being contemplated. He was named last week to replace Thomas Bolter, who is moving to Washington, D.C.

"The process of turning over operating activities of air pollution abatement to the technical secretary will be continued," Bienenfeld said.

He added that the technical secretary, Prof. Erwin C. Hoelscher of Washington University, will be available to representatives of industries, small business firms, city officials and all other persons for consultation on air pollution abatement problems.

All correspondence and inquiries on such matters should be addressed to Prof. Hoelscher at the city hall, Bienenfeld said. "He will be available personally on Tuesday afternoons."

Inspector Job Open
Bienenfeld, an engineer at McDonnell Aircraft, said the board is taking applications for the job of air pollution inspector, and inquiries should go to Prof. Hoelscher at the city hall.

"Minimum qualifications," he said, "are a high school education plus several years experience with combustion or industrial chemical process equipment. The applicant must also be prepared to attend special training programs on air pollution monitoring and inspection techniques."

"The board considers the position to be a technical civil position, comparable to those on the police and fire departments. The chairman announced the availability of a 16 mm color documentary film on air pollution. The film was produced by the U.S. Senate Committee on Public Works and points out how air pollution has evolved over the past few decades from a relatively simple smoke problem to a more complex and dangerous problem of nationwide concern."

Arrangements for civic organizations and clubs to borrow the film may be made by calling the technical secretary at the city hall on Tuesday afternoons.

Chas. Kennerly, 65, Dies of Gunshot Wound
Charles Kennerly Sr., 65, of 2637 Grand avenue, was discovered by his wife lying on the kitchen floor at 3:30 p.m. Thursday with a gunshot wound to the chest. He was pronounced dead at the scene by Deputy Coroner Robert Thomas, who has scheduled an inquest for this week.

According to police, Mr. Kennerly had been shot through the chest with a .22 caliber rifle. His left wrist was slashed and gas was escaping from a kitchen stove which was turned on, the report stated. A pocket knife and a large kitchen knife were lying on a kitchen counter top.

Coroner Thomas said that no notes were found. Mr. Kennerly was reported to have been despondent for some time. He had returned 12 months ago from A. O. Smith Corp., where he had been employed as an equipment operator.

A native of Stewart County, Tenn., Mr. Kennerly had lived in the local community for 46 years. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ora Angela Kennerly; two sons, Charles Kennerly Jr., and Robert Scott Kennerly, both of Granite City; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Furell, Murray, Ky., and Mrs. Carrie Sherman, Granite City; two brothers, Clayton and John Kennerly, both of Murray, Ky., and four grandchildren. Funeral services were held Saturday. Arrangements are given elsewhere in this issue.

Mrs. Austin Lewis of Madison is president of the Society, and announced that the featured speakers will be Dr. Gordon F. Moore of Alton, president of the Society, and Miss Edith S. Mason of St. Louis, nationally-known landscape artist.

The program will include music selections by the Civic Memorial Double Sextette of Bethalto high school, a flag ceremony by Bethalto Boy and Girl Scouts; the welcome by Erwin Piegge, mayor of Bethalto, and a report by the society's nominating committee.

WOOD, DON H., 114 Third street, Collinsville. Entered into rest 5:30 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 16, 1966.

Don H. Wood, 31, Killed in Crash

Don H. Wood, 31, of 114 Third street, Collinsville, who was employed as a field representative at the Granite City office of Cuna Mutual Insurance Society, became the second fatality in a two-car crash which occurred at 7:10 p.m. Friday near Caseyville.

An active member of the Collinsville Jaycees, Mr. Wood died at 5:30 a.m. yesterday at St. Mary's Hospital, East St. Louis. An inquest is pending.

A passenger in the Wood auto, LaMoyn Potlatch, 27, of Collinsville, was killed instantly in the head-on collision, which took place north of Caseyville at the junction of State Route 157 and the Caseyville-Collinsville road. Driver of the second vehicle, Harold D. Cash, 19, of Caseyville and two passengers in the Cash auto also were hospitalized with injuries.

According to state police, the Wood auto was going north on Highway 157 when it left the roadway, knocking down a stop sign at the Caseyville road intersection and swerved back into the opposite lane on Highway 157, colliding head-on with the Cash vehicle.

Mr. Wood had been employed at the insurance company's local office about one year. He had been with another insurance agency prior to joining Cuna Mutual and from 1955 to 1965 worked for Dow Chemical Co. Mr. Wood and his father, William Thomas Wood of Collinsville, who survives, were the first father and son team to be employed at the local chemical plant.

A native of Thomaston, Ga., Mr. Wood had resided in Collinsville for 15 years. He had been involved in many activities with the Collinsville Jaycees and with the Collinsville Khoury League in which he served as manager of Duff's A&W team. He was a member of St. John's United Church of Christ in Collinsville.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Rosemary (Deween) Wood; three sons, Jeffrey Alan, ten years, Michael Thomas, eight, and Christopher Eric, five; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Wood; one brother, Jerry R. Wood, Bolivar, Mo.; one sister, Mrs. Sanford (Iris) Martin, St. Louis; and a step-grandmother, Emma Oates of Jackson, Mo.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

COPE, Area Trade Unions to Fight Mental Health Tax

The 24th District of the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education, representing a union membership of 100,000 in Madison county, has voted to oppose a proposal to establish a Madison County Mental Health District, it was reported today.

Similar action has been taken by the Tri-City Central Trades and Labor Council, according to Edwin Reske, council president. The trades council represents the membership of 59 union locals in the Quad-City area.

Press-Record, "COPE and the trades council officials have called upon the membership 'to vote against' the mental health proposal in a referendum to be held in conjunction with the Nov. 8 general election. Both groups also will 'actively oppose' the proposition, Reske said.

The Mental Health District proposal carries with it a rate ranging up to a maximum of ten cents per $100 assessed valuation.

In voting rejection of the proposition, Reske told the CCOPE and the Tri-City Trades and Labor Council feel that the services offered by the proposed Mental Health District already are being furnished satisfactorily, and the additional tax appears unnecessary at this time."

Eye for an Eye Vietnam Escalation

(Sixth of seven articles by the late Dr. Russell Strange on the Vietnam war.)

In 1956 Ho Chi Minh, deprived of his plum which had been surrendered by the French at Geneva, returned to the rough and tumble deadly warfare politics in which he had been successful.

The contrast between this kind of politics and American practical politics, rough as it may seem at times, is hard for most of us to grasp.

In the international game, war is a political act—a continuation of political relations as well as an instrument of politics. A basic consideration of the policymakers is that peace ends in war and war in peace.

Ironically, the same Uncle Ho-style political bullet which thrust the American presidency on Lyndon Johnson also thrust into his hand the hot crucible of a Vietnam about which he had not dreamed. He's Secretary of State many years earlier.

The escalation process which began in 1956 has been a tit-for-tat game. Each side changed its use of violence in the effort to weary the other.

Each escalated with the means at its disposal, terror bombs or bombers.

Significantly, the bombers did not head north until after the PT boats attacked in the Gulf of Tonkin in August 1964. After terror bombing of American barracks and the U.S. Embassy, direct combat by Americans was authorized in June 1965.

The American President attempted de-escalation by bombing let-ups and a lull. There was no response from the opponent except more terror.

Rather, de-escalation seemed to be interpreted as a wavering of American will.

The Christmas 1965 truce saw the United States peace envoys vainly fan out over the globe like doves.

The other or not another de-escalation attempt is wise in the face of army division-strength infiltration through the demilitarized zone.

The President and his advisors with their sources of information to decide.

Is it what we hired him for in 1964.

America is committed to the operation.

Each side change horses, or strategies, or decision-makers in the middle of the game seems unwise and indecisive.

Permit County Treasurers, Sheriffs to Succeed Themselves

Quad-City voters will help decide Nov. 8 whether to amend the Illinois Constitution to permit county treasurers and sheriffs to succeed themselves in office. These are the only county officials not now permitted to serve consecutive four-year terms.

The proposal has been considered often in the past and defeated each time. The Press-Record suggests a "Yes" vote in 1966 because it feels times have changed to the extent that advantages of consecutive service now outweigh the disadvantages.

Madison county officials in past years have ranged all the way from terrible to excellent, both in the offices where an individual could serve indefinitely and in the offices where he was limited to one term. In some cases, treasurers and sheriffs have swapped offices at four-year intervals.

The biggest objection to back-to-back sheriff huge sums illicitly to perpetuate an inept lawman in office. This is still possible, but the public is less tolerant of corruption than was the case in the past lawless eras. And the precedent for state intervention when enforcement breaks down has become firmly established.

Independent annual audits of all county offices are now required, providing an additional safeguard on a county treasurer's conduct of his office.

There, of course, is no guarantee that only capable officials will be re-elected.

But if the county officials' re-election amendment is approved Nov. 8, an officeholder who has proven his competence would no longer have to be turned out of office automatically at the end of his term. With more job security at the top, more highly-trained staff might be attracted. Officials could perform their duties with increasing efficiency as they acquired greater experience.

A "Yes" vote therefore is recommended for the shortsighted of the two Blue Ballot proposals. The other, which is the revenue amendment, will be discussed later.

New Viewpoint on the Balance-of-Payments Deficit—If U.S. Is to be World's Banker, Foreigners Need to Acquire Short-Term Dollar Assets

(Federal Reserve Bank Review)

Widespread attention has been directed toward the international payment system and the status of the dollar for the past several years.

It has been almost universally accepted that the United States payments position has been in disequilibrium, with published deficit figures and U.S. gold losses as the main evidence.

As a result of this "disequilibrium," the international payment system has been questioned, and many reforms have been suggested.

This article presents some representative views on the U.S. balance of payments which have divergent implications for the world payments system and U.S. economic policy.

Traditionally, accounting for a nation's international trading and financial transactions is a balance-of-payments statement, a set of accounts which records the totality of payments to, and receipts from, foreigners for a given period.

Further perspective can be obtained by examining changes in a nation's international balance sheet. This statement shows, at a given time, a nation's claims and liabilities vis-a-vis the rest of the world.

Is Our Position Sustainable?

Since both sets of accounts are only neutral accounting statements, the international balance sheet and the balance of payments require analytical interpretation are required to judge whether a nation's liquidity, the relation between its international claims and liabilities, is in a "sustainable" manner.

Traditionally, the U.S. balance-of-payments accounts have been arranged to show changes in the nation's liquidity, the relation between its international claims and liabilities, is in a "sustainable" manner.

Drainage Plan Spares Out Sewer Costs Over a Period of Years

Two statements in the Granite City Council sewer report are worthy of particular attention as planning for a comprehensive Granite City drainage program proceeds. Under the plan, $1,900,000 in bonds would be issued initially and other bonds later as matching funds become available.

The report points out that proponents of the sewer program "while admitting that there is some risk in undertaking debt at some future date, think that the advantages of having had a bond issue to complete a plan acceptable to the regulatory agencies of the government outweigh the disadvantage of future debt. They believe a passed bond issue would put us in much better shape to get additional funds from federal agencies."

It is undoubtedly true—there would be much more likelihood of additional federal funds being authorized.

In noting that only $1,900,000 in bonds would be issued at first, the report relates that the "remainder of the steps in meeting our needs will be taken as funds grants were made available to be matched with bond issue funds. It is possible to pass a bond issue for a specified amount and use the money piecemeal as the need arises under the bond money arises."

This is the pattern that has been followed successfully in St. Louis county and many other areas—approval at the start of a comprehensive program intended to be carried out gradually over a period of years, keeping costs at any one time at a reasonable level.

Among the many advantages is that every neighborhood is assured of needed drainage relief without an awkward series of elections, each one dealing with improvements for only a part of the community.

Start Should Be Made Now On Downtown Improvement Program

Elimination of air pollution is one of the steps recommended to rejuvenate the central Granite City business district.

Although the precise standards remain to be set, there is no question but that the downtown area will become extremely pure within the next year or two. The real question is whether other improvements outlined by the SIU Business Research Bureau also will have been carried out.

Under the third option outlined, the one selected as the most suitable response to future downtown needs, a call is made for dedicated participation by all social, economic and political elements. Greater plan is urged, including improved traffic control, encouragement of new businesses, expanded promotional programs, and creative thought and efforts to develop a range and depth of services offering unique appeal. A cultural center and medical services center are proposed for consideration.

The study report calls for an overall coordinating committee and eight special project committees to explore local, state and federal programs, traffic problems, shopper-parking requirements, renewal, new business activities, development of promotional programs, improvement of family living facilities and special political programs.

The program admittedly is ambitious, but for even the longest journey it is necessary to take a first step, and then a second and third.

A start must be made while there is still maximum interest and enthusiasm.

The traditional views on balance-of-payments equilibrium are out-moded.

Robert V. Roosa argues that traditional views on balance-of-payments adjustment focused attention on trade in goods and services, assuming that appropriate monetary policies would assure control over capital movements.

But given present day conditions—a reluctance or inability to manipulate prices, wages and incomes in the domestic economy, fragmented and cartelized capital markets abroad, and the large, uncontrolled, diverse U.S. market—the view that balance-of-payments flows are a passive balancing item is unrealistic.

Rather, U.S. capital outflows have been a means whereby the international economy has acquired needed dollar holdings.

Emile Despres, Charles P. Kindeberger and Walter S. Salant emphasize the role of financial intermediation performed by the U.S. for the rest of the world.

With differences between U.S. and foreign liquidity preferences, the desire to hold financial assets in short-term form and liabilities in long-term form, a trade in financial assets has been developed. U.S. purchasing long-term foreign liabilities and foreigners holding short-term dollar assets.

This phenomenon technically increases the U.S. deficit, measured by the liquidity approach, but it also has the effect of implying that short-term dollar holdings are capital imports and should be included in a deficit measure.

An important point is at issue: A significant part of U.S. reported capital outflows may not represent an intended real capital transfer but may arise out of the fulfillment of a worldwide financial intermediation function by the United States.

Similarly, if increasing foreign private holdings are also to be considered a part of the product of international financial intermediation, these liabilities may be considered a capital transfer but may arise out of the fulfillment of a worldwide financial intermediation function by the United States.

Urges Defeat of Revenue Article

To the Editor:

Nov. 8 is election day. Illinois voters will be electing a senator, congressmen and legislators. Nobody is giving much attention to an issue on the ballot which will have greater and more permanent influence on the lives of Illinois citizens than that of the candidates in this election. How will school districts repel money voters will go to the polls without any understanding of what the Blue Ballot Revenue Amendment is, or does.

This citizen thinks it is important for the people to know that the Revenue Amendment will be a giant step backward for Illinois.

Good citizens are willing to pay their fair share of a fair tax, but the amendment will not allow the state government to use methods of taxation that are fair to the average wage earner.

Do the people really want to vote for an amendment which makes it impossible to tax corporations?

POVERTY WAR WASTING VAST AMOUNT OF TAXES

To the Editor:

The War on Poverty program was poorly and hastily drafted and is being sadly misused.

Not only Republicans but many Democrats are calling for a thorough investigation of the program.

It has not even been two years since the so-called War on Poverty has been in progress, and yet two and one-half billion dollars have already been spent to no effect.

At the St. Petersburg Job Corps Center, the cost per girl per year was $7000 a year. At Camp Kilmer, N.J., it was $6000 per boy. We could send our girls and boys to Vassar or Harvard for a good deal less per year.

Senator Albert Gore (D, Tenn.) was shocked into making the following statement: "The office of the Attorney General is a grossly disorganized affair and while I hope some order will be brought out of current chaos, I become more doubtful daily."

Meeting on Sewer Project in Nameoki Twp. Res. Nov. 3

An organizational meeting of a new citizens' committee that is expected to recommend steps in establishing a complete sewer program for Nameoki township was postponed Friday evening when only six appointees to the 16-man commission reported for the group's initial session. An alternate date of Thursday, Nov. 3, was announced.

Representatives from each of the township's seven precincts, together with two residents of Pontoon Beach Village, were scheduled to attend Friday's meeting and officially start planning for a proposed sewer project for the township.

Appointees to the citizens' group were recommended and selected by precinct committee men from the different areas.

No Twp. U. S. Funds
Harry Briggs, Nameoki township supervisor, explained the purpose of the committee to those present at the meeting. He stressed that no funds are available to support the work of the planning committee, such as engineering fees or for legal assistance. He added that further investigation has disclosed the lack of federal funds for a township sewer project.

Briggs added that he hopes the citizens' group will begin to function as quickly as possible, electing their own officers and chairman. Formation of a sewer committee had been recommended by board members at earlier township meetings.

Those attending the meeting Friday included: Orville Cook, Precinct Two; Robert Meloy, Precinct Four; Donald Cramer and Robert Flynn, Precinct Five; and William Heath, and Carl Macios, representing Michael Ropac, from Precinct Six.

Also present were Township Clerk John Karlechik, and board members, Herbert Polley, Robert Strackeljah and William Schreiber.

AAUW's Art Study Group Meets with Local Artist

The Art Study group of the American Association of University Women met Friday evening in the home and studio of Gilbert Singleton, 2291 Lynch avenue, to learn from an artist at work.

Singleton said that art needs to be taken more seriously, to be lifted out of the trash can so that it no longer is a subject to be laughed at or ridiculed. He also told the group that art is a "reflection of the times, and that modern art reflects restlessness and hurry of today with no place for art."

"Art needs to regain a sense of values and purpose, and the artists must think deeply and reflect sincerity of feeling," he added.

"Municipal costs are not increased because the occupants are usually small in number, and the locations are convenient to collection crews and city departments. And they solidify the community because most of the individuals and families are permanent rather than transient residents."

The one-bedroom apartments are air-conditioned and include drapes, ranges, refrigerators, disposal units, soundproofing, television antennas, telephone outlets and Medallion electrical wiring.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD

Mon., Oct. 17, 1966 Page 23

Winds, Rain Hit Area, Damaging Trees and Awnings

Winds up to 35 miles an hour buffeted the Quad-Cities area Friday night but caused little or no damage other than blowing down large tree limbs and ripping awnings.

The storm was accompanied by lightning and .70-inch of rain. Loc alpolice received few calls on tree limbs — the largest being the top of a dead sycamore tree that fell in a driveway at 2615 Delmar avenue, but the strong winds touched off about eight burglar alarms, sending police to business places to investigate.

No hearings were reported. Stronger winds hit the St. Charles, Mo., area at the same time, resulting in about 20 persons being hurt as trees and awnings were overturned in trailer courts.

The .70-inch of rain increased the area's total precipitation for October to 2.84 inches, nearing the month's normal amount of 2.86 inches.

Precipitation for the year now amounts to 24.86 inches in 10½ months, about three inches below normal.

Man Arrested, Freed 3rd Time Without Bond

Predester Arron, 23, of 46 Lee Wright Homes, Venice was arrested on a charge of burglary the third time since Sept. 25. Arron and two companions were arrested by Madison police near the Madison Lodge store at Fourth street and Madison avenue.

Authorities said Arron was carrying a .22 caliber rifle when the stock had been removed. All three men were charged with disorderly conduct and released without bond on a notice to appear for hearing in magistrate's court.

At the time of his arrest Arron was free on a charge of theft under which he has been bound over to the grand jury, and a charge of criminal damage of property filed against him by Venice police Oct. 10. In both the theft and property damage cases, Arron was released on notice to appear for hearing which does not require posting of bond.

Arrested with Arron were Clement West, 15, of 1127 Logan street, Venice, and Charles E. Stanley, 18, of 621 Salvester street, Venice.

Two Cars Damaged
Cars driven by Kenneth Lewis Smith, St. Louis, and Isadore White, also of St. Louis, were damaged in a collision at 700 block of Bissell street at 3 p.m. Sunday. Madison police reported Smith was driving west on Bissell and struck from the rear by White's truck when he stopped for traffic.

Battery Charge Filed
A charge of battery was placed against Alvin A. Potts, 20, of 2259 Washington avenue, who was arrested at his home Saturday morning on a complaint filed by Jerry Braswell.

AREA MENTAL HEALTH CLINICS will benefit from contributions made to a recent mental health fund drive conducted by Illinois Moose lodges in District 10, Clarence Meyenburg (right), civic affairs chairman for Granite City Moose Lodge 272, presents a $144 check to Frank Rodgers Jr. (left), governor of the local lodge.

Mental health and the effects of proposed changes in legislation to be presented to voters in the Nov. 8 referendum were the subjects discussed by Leonard Schwartz, an Edwardsville drug dealer, who addressed members of the Granite City Lodge 272, Loyal Order of Moose, at the group's regular business meeting, Thursday evening.

In conjunction with the mental health program, Clarence Meyenburg, Moose Lodge 272's civic affairs chairman and a past governor, presented a $144 check to Frank Rodgers Jr., current official of the local lodge.

Meyenburg explained that the funds, collected in a recent drive here, will be turned over to the Illinois Moose Association of District 10. He added that together with contributions from other district lodges, the donations then will be provided to mental health clinics in Madison and St. Clair counties, including the Quad-City Mental Health Center.

Rodgers announced plans for class enrollment ceremonies and a social evening, which were held Saturday evening at the Moose Hall, 1800a State street. Dinner was served at 6:30 p.m., with enrollment of 15 new members following. There also was dancing for the members and their guests to conclude Saturday's festivities.

Optimists Get Tips On Wash and Wear

Household hints on the proper care and value of the new wash and wear fabrics, now widely used in the manufacture of men's clothing, were related to a local men's service club Thursday afternoon, with members asked to relay the information to their wives.

Explaining the advantages of some of the new materials to 24 Granite City Optimists was Mrs. Jo Leslie Meyer, an Illinois Power Co. home economist, who spoke at the club's weekly luncheon meeting, held at the YMCA. Fred Cunningham, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker.

Sample garments, including shirts and slacks, were displayed by Mrs. Meyer, who reported that, for classification as true wash and wear articles, clothing must be entirely manufactured of treated fabric. This includes the thread, lining and incidental materials, she added.

The group also viewed a film, furnished by Kroyer Co., a firm which processes chemicals used in the manufacture of wash and wear material.

Wilbert Tribes, Optimist president, asked executive board members to meet in his office at 3 p.m. today for a previously postponed directors' meeting.

This week, club members will hear Stanley Kessling, a representative of the AAA Automobile Club of Missouri, who will discuss the school safety patrol program. Encouraging student traffic patrols at local schools is one of many projects supported by the local Optimist club.

Members of the church choir will serve light refreshments at a reception in Fellowship Hall immediately following the recital to permit guests and friends to visit with Arnatt.

The public is being invited to attend the recital, which will feature a wide variety of music demonstrating the range, richness of tone, and harmony of the instrument.

Arnatt will play Bach's "Fugue and Fugue in G Minor," Handel's "Concerto No. 5 in F, Op. 4," Franck's "Pastorale," Messiaen's "Les Corps Glorieux," and Whitlock's "Allegretto," "Folk Tune," "Andante Tranquillo," "Scherzo" and "Pagan."

City Hall Wages to be Council Topic Tonight

A major topic for tonight's 8 o'clock Granite City council session is expected to be the $24 and $11 pay increases for 21 city hall employees.

The council has been debating the issue since August, while agreement has been reached on 3% to 7% pay increases for policemen, firemen and street department employees. The council has rejected a 4% increase proposal by the personnel committee for the city hall employees and has approved the flat rate increases of $24 and $11.

The pay boost ordinances are to be presented tonight.

The 3½-page agenda includes 14 communications and lists committee and city officer reports as well as the opening of bids for street car track removal, minor sewer work and miscellaneous work.
